MSU Denver faculty united in support of students and democracy on election day

Alarmed by the increasing efforts to obstruct the upcoming presidential election in a variety of ways;

Fully aware of the increasing racism that is directed at BIPOC communities as we approach election day;

Deeply conscious of the pain, confusion, strife, and indignation this racism and obstruction of democracy is currently causing a majority of our students to experience;

Resolved, that the MSU Denver Faculty Senate:

1. requests the faculty at MSU Denver to not take attendance or introduce crucial course content on election day;
2. urges the faculty at MSU Denver to recognize the sincere need to support not just our students right to vote but also the rights of their families and communities who will need their support on election day;
3. calls upon the faculty at MSU Denver to respond quickly and generously to appeals for student support on election day
4. stresses the continuing need for faculty at MSU Denver to remain impartial and objective while supporting the rights of our students to participate in the democratic process
5. further invites the faculty at MSU Denver to educate and encourage our students to participate in the voting process
6. affirms the passionate support of the faculty at MSU Denver to stand by the right to vote.
