Janine Davidson, Ph.D.

President

She is a bold supporter of the student body and has her sights set on making MSU Denver the model urban university for opportunity, excellence and innovation.
Service is her life's work. Prior to leading MSU Denver, Davidson was the undersecretary of the United States Navy and then President Barack Obama's appointed chief management officer for the Navy and Marine Corps.

- First woman to fly the Air Force's tactical C-130.
- Has taught at numerous other colleges and universities.
- She's just as comfortable in board meetings as she is playing ping-pin with students.
