

The vision of Metropolitan State University of Denver is to become the model urban university for opportunity, diversity, excellence and transformation. As part of this vision the university prides itself on providing a high value, high quality education to each of its undergraduate students. Did you know that MSU Denver also offers competitive, regionally and professionally accredited graduate programs as well? In fact, our graduate programs underpin the university's vision by fostering an inclusive environment that enables curious, creative and bold thinkers to engage in impactful, professionally oriented, advanced education programs. Our graduate students pursue answers to significant questions and challenge assumptions, while acting within an ethical context.

Whether you are interested in career entry, a career change or career advancement; our professional graduate programs are purposefully designed with YOU in mind. We offer five alternative licensure programs for teacher candidates as well as the following graduate degree options:

- Master of Professional Accountancy
- Master of Arts in Teaching
- Master of Social Work
- Master of Health Administration
- Master of Business Administration
- Master of Science in Cybersecurity
- Master of Science in Human Nutrition and Dietetics
- Master of Science in Clinical Behavioral Health—Addictions Counseling Emphasis

We also offer the following graduate certificate programs:

- Autism and Significant Support Needs
- Human Nutrition Science
- Business Analytics
- Cybercrime Investigation
- Cyber Defense
- Cybersecurity Leadership

We have more exciting additions to our graduate portfolio on the horizon. If you found your undergraduate experience rewarding imagine the thrill of participating in a supportive yet rigorous learning environment with peers who share your interest and intensity. Imagine what it would be like to have ground-breaking discussions and guest lectures from thought and practice leaders in your field. Picture yourself not only learning what to think, but how to think...how to think holistically, critically and with precision. These are just a few of the benefits you can expect as a graduate student at MSU Denver.

If the idea of participating in a graduate program strategically designed to serve the needs of our community, bolster our city and state's economy, and find solutions to the issues of our nation's increasingly urbanized society sounds ideal, check out what MSU Denver has to offer by visiting the Office of Graduate Studies website at <https://www.msudenver.edu/graduate-studies/> or emailing us at ogs@msudenver.edu. We'd love to chat with you about our MSU Denver graduate programs, a place with excellence and innovation converge.
