

Electronic Recruiting Resources

- a. The American Council on Education maintains resume banks for top administrative positions.
<http://www.acenet.edu>
- b. The American Society of Women Accountants is an on-line job listing.
<http://www.aswa.org/>
- c. The Black Collegian Online targets recent African Americans graduates with a B.A./B.S. who are seeking professional positions.
<http://www.black-collegian.com>
- d. The number one news source for college and university faculty members and administrators is The Chronicle.
<http://www.chronicle.com>
- e. The Directory of Ethnic Minority Professionals in Psychology is a directory that provides a listing of minority professionals in psychology and is published by the American Psychological Association. E-mail address:
- f. The Florida Education Fund is a non-profit corporation with the goal of enhancing the educational advancement of historically underrepresented groups by offering programs and consulting services related to faculty and staff recruitment.
<http://www.fefonline.org/>
- g. The Future Black Faculty Database was created by the Black Graduate Engineering and Science Students at UC Berkeley. This database contains records of doctoral candidates, recent graduates, and professionals seeking a position in academia. All database members are of African descent and plan to obtain a tenure track faculty position within 5-7 years. E-mail address: fbf@aess.berkeley.edu.
- h. The Hispanic Outlook in Higher Education publishes 26 times a year and is the sole Hispanic journal on today's college campuses that reaches a broad cultural audience of educators, administrators, students, student service, community-based organizations, and corporations.
<http://www.hispanicoutlook.com>.
- i. The Minority On-Line Information Service (MOLIS) provides and promotes education, research, and diversity on a national level for minority institutions in partnership with government, industry and other sectors.
<http://www.molis.us/>

j. The Minority & Women Doctoral Directory lists a number of students in nearly 80 fields in the sciences, engineering, humanities and the social sciences arena.

k. The National Association of Black Accountants is an on-line job listing and placement service.

<http://www.nabainc.org/>

l. Women in Higher Education is a great resource that reaches over 12,000 women with administrative careers in higher education.

<http://www.wihe.com/>