

MAJOR IN FRENCH (OPTION I)

This program is officially called Major in Modern Languages, French Concentration (Option I).

First-Year French does not count towards your minor. French 1010 (5 credits) can be taken as an elective course and French 1020 (5 credits) as a General studies (Oral Communication) course.

If you have studied French in the past, have your level assessed with the free BYU test so that we can place you at the right level. Earn credits by taking the CLEP test.

Required lower division course (12 hours)		Semester hours
FRE 2010	Intermediate French I	3
FRE 2020	Intermediate French II	3
FRE 2110	French Reading and Conversation	3
FRE 3010	Intro. to Advanced French Studies	3

The remaining 30 hours of upper division must consist of at least

Advanced Language courses (12 hours)

FRE 3150	French Phonetics: Theory and Practice	3
FRE 3310	Advanced French Composition and Grammar	3
FRE 3320	Cinema in French for Advanced Conversation	3
FRE 4540	Literature, Culture, and Translation	3

Culture and Literature courses (18 hours)

Culture courses (6 hours)

FRE 3550	French Historical Perspectives	3
FRE 3560	Contemporary Socio-Cultural Issues	3

Literature courses (12 hours)

FRE 3110	Survey of French Literature I (required)	3
FRE 3120	Survey of French Literature II (required)	3

Choose any two literature courses:

FRE 4520	Modern French Theatre (*)	3
FRE 4530	The French Novel (*)	3
FRE 4750	Senior Seminar in French Studies	3

Total 42 credit hrs

Senior Year Experience:

One course marked with an (*) will satisfy this requirement;
Student Teaching will satisfy this requirement.

Advisors: Jean-François Duclos (jduclos@msudenver.edu) Ann Williams (gascona@msudenver.edu).