

▶ THE DENVER STUDENT TEACHER RESIDENCY

Denver Student Teacher Residency (STR) is looking for hardworking, reflective individuals who are ready to make an immediate impact in the classrooms of the Denver Public Schools. Successful candidates have completed the necessary coursework to be ready to do their student teaching. The Residency experience is a full year.

▶ WHERE DEDICATION MEETS EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING

Residents will be trained in one of the following areas:

- Elementary Education (K-5 in English or Spanish)
- Special Education (K-12)
- Secondary Education (Mathematics)
- Early Childhood Education (ECE)

▶ PARTICIPANT BENEFITS

- Yearlong internship in a DPS classroom working alongside a highly qualified mentor teacher
- Financial incentives available to participants
- In addition to a Bachelor's Degree and a Colorado Teaching License, earn the added endorsement for Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Learners
- Become considered a priority candidate in the Denver Public Schools hiring cycle
- Earn competitive salary and performance based incentives upon becoming a DPS classroom teacher

▶ ARE YOU READY FOR THE CHALLENGE?

This program is looking for candidates who have demonstrated strong performance in their coursework leading up to student teaching and who are deeply committed to working with Denver's children in the city's classrooms. While the Residency year is rigorous and intense, candidates will be fully prepared for the challenges faced by novice teachers. For additional information, contact sarah_flanders@dpsk12.org or speak with your academic advisor