1. All requests must be submitted in writing to the custodian. Requests made to any other person or office within the University will not be accepted.
2. All requests must be specific as to the records sought and the relevant dates. Requests for correspondence must identify the parties to the correspondence. For any request that is vague or broadly stated, the custodian may require the requestor to provide a more specific request before responding.
3. The custodian is not required by CORA to construct or create a record that does not exist. Additionally, the custodian is not required to manipulate or analyze information in a new way to respond to a request.
4. Time for response to CORA requests that comply with this policy shall be as follows:
 - a. The normal time for production shall be three working days, beginning on the first business day after the request is received by the custodian.
 - b. The custodian may extend the three-day period upon a determination by the custodian that extenuating circumstances exist. The extension will not normally exceed seven working days. The requestor will be notified of the extension within the original three-day period.

5. Requests to inspect records shall not take priority over the regular work activities of University employees.
 6. Charges for copies of requested records shall be as follows:
 - a. The normal cost for requested documents shall be $.25 per page or, for documents in non-standard formats, the actual duplication costs.
 - b. At the custodian's prerogative, the requestor may be charged a reasonable research, retrieval and review fee based on the actual cost of responding to the request; provided, however, that the hourly rate for employee time is $33.58 per hour. There shall be no charge for the first hour of employee time. If the custodian charges research and retrieval fees under this provision, copying shall be charged at a rate of $.25 per page.
 - c. Where the record is a result of computer output other than word processing, the requestor will be charged, unless waived or reduced by the custodian, the actual incremental costs of providing the electronic services and products together with a reasonable portion of the costs associated with building and maintaining the information system.
 - d. The custodian may, at the custodian's sole discretion, choose to manipulate or analyze information in a new way in order to respond to a request. When the record is a result of such manipulation or analysis, the requestor will be charged, unless waived or reduced by the custodian, the actual costs of creating the record.

- e. Payment must be received prior to the requestor receiving copies.
7. If charges are expected to exceed $25, the custodian will provide the requestor with an estimate of the cost of responding prior to responding and may require a deposit. If the requestor wishes to proceed once receiving an estimate, the requestor must respond in writing. The time between the date of the custodian's estimate and the receipt by the custodian of a written response to proceed will not be counted against the time period set forth above.
8. If a requestor wishes to inspect available records in advance of receiving copies, such inspection shall be by appointment only during normal working hours. Such inspection shall occur on-site and may be supervised by a University representative.
9. After the approval of this policy, if CORA is amended to modify the maximum amount of any charges described above, the policy will be applied consistent with the provisions of such amendments.
