APPEAL PROCESS: If none of the registration situations or circumstances above apply to you, or if you are unable to provide the required documentation, or if you failed to register for the Selective Service between ages 18-25, you have the option of appealing your financial aid eligibility. To appeal, you must first request a Status Letter from the Selective Service System (www.sss.gov). Attach your Status Letter to this form along with a typed statement explaining your failure to register and any documentation supporting your appeal. Your statement should address the reason you were not aware of the widely publicized requirement to register while aged 18-25. Our office will then review your appeal to determine if you are eligible for aid despite failing to register for Selective Service.
