Clinical certification (after graduate school) by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association requires several courses at the undergraduate level: a) statistics; b) physics or chemistry; c) social/behavioral sciences and d) biological sciences. Please see your faculty advisor for questions in regards to these requirements.

SLHS 4550 course is highly recommended for students pursuing a Speech-Language Pathology Assistant career.

- Due to rigor of SLHS program, students are encouraged to enroll in no more than 12 credits in their 3rd and 4th year. Summer courses are not required,
