Music, Race & Social Justice Visiting Artist Series: Terence Blanchard

MSU Denver welcomes Oscar nominee, six-time Grammy-winner and 2018 USA Fellow trumpeter/composer Terence Blanchard for a keynote conversation about music and activism on Zoom Wednesday from 6 - 7:30 p.m. Blanchard's work has been a consistent artistic force for making powerful musical statements concerning painful American tragedies - past and present.

Auraria Campus Barbershop Talks: Community Care

In African American neighborhoods, the barbershop serves as a "sanctuary" and allows Black people to be vulnerable while discussing issues impacting their community. This Barbershop Talk is designed to allow you to reflect on significant themes and issues impacting their lives, community activism, propose practical solutions and learn to harness the power of their shared identity. Register now for Thursday's talk (2 - 3 p.m.)

I Need To See Some Identification - A Poetry Show

In this part performance and part conversation, Jeff Dess - a poet and spoken word artist - uses his words as a vehicle to deconstruct Black identity from multiple viewpoints and lenses. He tackles immigration, police brutality, community development, history and more. Register now for Friday's event (11 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.).

Black Music Matters

Met Radio has joined with BLVCK Koshier to create a space where local black musicians are welcome to express their experiences in these trying times. Musicians will be featured by MSU Denver's own artists, as well as other local artists. Register now for Friday's event (4 - 5:30 p.m.).
