

TUITION REFUND POLICY

1. Upon student withdrawal or termination, tuition and fee refunds will be granted as follows:
 - a. Prior to, and on the first day of the applicable semester: 100% of tuition and fees will be refunded, except for the non-refundable deposit and fees. If you received any scholarships, the scholarship funds will be returned to the grantor, and will not be applied towards the balance of the tuition and fees.
 - b. After the first day and up to 5 days into the applicable semester, 50% of tuition and fees will be refunded, minus the non-refundable deposit and fees. If you received any scholarships, the scholarships funds will be returned to the grantor, and will not be applied towards the balance of the tuition and fees.
 - c. After 5 days into the applicable semester, no refund of tuition and fees will be granted. If you received any scholarships, the scholarships funds will be returned to the grantor, and will not be applied towards the balance of the tuition and fees.
 - d. If the cost of unreturnable or non-returned equipment and/or other charges to the equipment breakage fee exceed the student's account balance, the student will be billed.
2. Upon student withdrawal or termination after the first day of the semester, no refunds will be given for the following:
 - a. tuition deposits
 - b. microscope use fee
 - c. course supplies
 - d. late payment penalties
3. Upon student withdrawal or termination after the beginning of a semester, and if tuition and fees for that semester have not been paid, the student will be billed for the appropriate amount after the applicable refund is determined.
4. If refunds are due to a student, they will be processed by the Metropolitan State University of Denver Office of Student Accounts.
