Mission: SACNAS is an inclusive organization dedicated to fostering the success of college students to professionals, in attaining advanced degrees, careers, and positions of leadership in STEM.

Our key messages:

- SACNAS is a leader in the national movement to build a critical mass of STEM leaders from underrepresented communities.
- SACNAS helps diverse scientists merge and integrate their diverse identities, creating space to include the unique contributions and perspectives of all.

Organizational Culture:

- Inclusive of ethnicities, cultures, and scientific disciplines
- Committed to standards of excellence in science and education
- Devoted to full engagement of its members in the organization's work

NEXT STEPS WE NEED OFFICERS. CONTACT LORI TAYLOR IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN BECOMING AN OFFICER.
