

Patton Scholars Program Scholarship

About the Scholarship

The Patton Scholars program, a program supported by the James A. Patton ('84) Fund was developed to support students of color in the sciences. Through this program, we provide opportunities to hire students as teaching, learning, and/or instructional assistants in the Department of Biology or the Department of Chemistry & Biochemistry.

Requirements

- Biology, Chemistry, or Biochemistry Major
- Interest in taking on Leadership/Mentorship Role
- Previous coursework in Biology and/or Chemistry

Scholarship Award Amount

Up to $3000/semester

Scholarship Commitments

- To serve as a teaching, learning, or instructional assistant for assigned course(s)
- To support activities throughout the duration of the program's support
- Voluntary Evaluations (Questions and Interviews)
 - Impact of Program on Personal, Academic, and Professional Development

Application Deadline

Friday, November 12, 2021

Application Link and QR Code for Scholarship

<https://tinyurl.com/pattonscholar>

