

American Indian Certification Form

This form is for registered members of a federally recognized American Indian tribe with historical ties to the state of CO who would otherwise not qualify for in-state tuition as one-year residents of Colorado. Students qualifying for in-state tuition on this basis also qualify for the College Opportunity Fund (COF) and other Colorado financial aid programs. Student undergoing this certification form will need to submit supporting documents showing registration with a federally recognized American Indian tribe with historical ties to CO.
