

Description

The Broadcast Journalism B.A. prepares students for reporting, producing, and delivering news and news programs via radio, television and video. Instruction focuses on the methods and techniques for reporting the news, including the principles of broadcast technology, broadcast reporting, on- and off-camera and microphone procedures, editing, media law, and professional standards and ethics.

As a Broadcast Journalism major, you will be encouraged to explore all aspects of journalism and media production to make you a well-rounded candidate as you enter the workforce. We'll work with you and help you discover your talents that best fit the degrees we offer.
