FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Center for Visual Art Presents
*MSU Denver Student Exhibition

DENVER, COLORADO – Opening November 6, The MSU Denver Student Exhibition will showcase the work of the Department of Art's talented student artists and designers. Works in the exhibition will include a variety of styles and media, reflecting the richness of the art department. This vibrant exhibition offers a chance to see some of Denver's best and brightest emerging art and design talent.

Students graduating in the Spring and Fall 2020 semesters were invited to take part in this exhibition at the Center for Visual Art. Located in the heart of Denver's Arts District on Santa Fe, an exhibition at CVA offers MSU Denver students valuable exposure to the broader local arts community and professional exhibition experience. The exhibition opens November 6 and continues through November 28, 2020.

Additional Announcement

Opening November 6 online at 6:00pm, the Fall 2020 BFA Thesis Exhibition is the apex of MSU Denver's Studio Art and Communication Design students' education. Graduating students will present their thesis work in a shared, online exhibition at msudenverbfa2020.com.

While CVA normally hosts a BFA Thesis exhibition for each semester's graduating class, social distancing requirements and the university's restrictions on in-person events have made it so that these students are required to exhibit their thesis work in an online exhibition. CVA is pleased to promote the online Fall 2020 BFA Thesis exhibition in support of MSU Denver's graduating BFA students.

The 26 artists featured in the exhibition include: Kailee Bye, Kenyatta Cole, Chandler Dolan, Madeliene Etre, Alexander Garcia, John Gearhart, Larissa Hill, Lexie Kimminau, Anna Lindstrom, Thomas Long, Michaela Macasinag, Eufemia Medina, Alyssa Mora, Kendell Naetzker, Daniela Rascon, Maria Solis, Kendra Spangler, Hunter Sprague, Hannah Steele, Daniel Stroh, Kim Ta, Megan Tate, Audrey Twigg, Adrienne White, Karin Wyks, and Matt Yocom.

About CVA

The Center for Visual Art was founded in 1990 to expose students to leading-edge art and to broaden MSU Denver's art program. CVA is a division of the MSU

Denver Art Department which is dedicated to providing students with an unparalleled urban learning environment and a strong sense of community within the local art scene. In addition to hosting the BFA Thesis Exhibitions, the Center for Visual Art contributes to MSU Denver's status as a higher education art program in Colorado that maintains accreditation from the National Association of Schools of Art and Design. CVA provides a year-round schedule of bold, contemporary exhibitions of both local significance and international reach, educational programming open to the community and immersive workforce development for students in creative fields. CVA is free and open to everyone.

CVA is located at 965 Santa Fe Drive in Denver, Colorado. For gallery hours, full event listings and visitor information, please visit: www.msudenver.edu/cva.
