

Metropolitan State University of Denver

Image: Jasmine Wynter, Too Grown, 2018

Center for Visual Art Presents
DEEPER THAN SKIN

On view in the 965 Project Gallery through March 20, 2021, the exhibition features the work of artists Tyree Jones, Adri Norris, Yvens

Saintil, and Jasmine Wynter.

In Deeper Than Skin, four Denver artists examine life experiences within the Black community. The culmination of local activism stemming from the Summer 2020 and ongoing civil rights movements, their work highlights the continuation of the social justice timeline. The exhibition promotes community perseverance and humanizing actions.

In conjunction, CVA is hosting an artist panel with Tyree Jones, Yvens Saintil, and Jasmine Wynter. Please join us via Teams on February 16, from 6-7pm, for a virtual artist panel with these three artists to learn more about the work on view in the 965 Project Gallery.

Deeper Than Skin* Artist Panel

February 16, 2021, 6 - 7 pm

Attend Artist Panel

Anyone wishing to attend the panel may do so via the link above or by visiting CVA's event page: <https://www.msudenver.edu/cva/events/>

About the 965 Project Gallery: Located inside CVA, this student-run space provides premier professional development opportunities to MSU Denver students interested in fine art curation and arts administration.

Learn More

Media Contact:

Jenna Miles, Communications Manager

milesjen@msudenver.edu • 303.605.7458 (office)

Additional images available on request.
