

Sociology of Tourism

Certificate

Admission and Graduation Requirements

This certificate program is open to all undergraduate, degree-seeking students and to non-degree seeking students. To be awarded the program certificate, the student must meet the following requirements:

- Review the certificate program plan with an advisor prior to enrollment;
- Achieve a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or higher in the certificate program;
- Earn at least a “C” or better in each of the certificate courses; and
- Earn a minimum of 60% of required courses at MSU Denver.

Advising and Contact Information

Individuals interested in this certificate program should contact the School of Hospitality to schedule an appointment for an advising session.

Required Certificate Courses

SOC 1010	Introduction to Sociology	3 credits
SOC 1600	Tourism and Society	3 credits
TTM 3000	Sustainable Tourism and Recreation	3 credits
TTM 3200	Itinerary Design	3 credits

Elective Courses (Select 2)

TTM 3800	Cruise Tourism	3 credits
TTM 4100	Adventure Travel	3 credits
TTM 4200	Ecotourism	3 credits
SOC 1020	Globalization: The transformation of social worlds	3 credits
SOC 3730	Media and Society	3 credits
SOC 3080	Social Action through Art	3 credits

Total credits: 18