

Naming Me

Do not judge me by
my skin color, my hair
color, my body size
and my outer beauty.
If you do, you will miss entirely who I am.

My name is _____ . My name means _____ . I would describe myself as _____ , and my gender

(Social construct-race on the above line)

is _____ . I would describe my National (your description of your gender on the above line)

Origin as _____ .
(National Origin on the above line)

I was raised in _____ . My birthorder is _____ . I would describe my growing up years' as _____ . I was exposed to difference at age _____ via _____

_____ . My first language is _____ and I can also speak _____ . My parents did/did not speak another language.

(circle)

As a child the diverse people in my life were _____

_____ . I received negative messages about people who were _____

_____, and positive messages about people who were _____.

I received negative messages or have bias about these languages _____. Why?

I received positive messages about these languages _____. Why do you think this occurred?

I developed relationships as an adult with the following diverse people _____.

Why?

I have not developed relationships with people of color and/or difference with the following individuals _____.

Why?

In regard to equity and anti-bias consciousness, I would like to commit to: _____

