Iron Triangle Examples: The term "iron triangle" is a term used to describe the dynamics of policy-making between special interest groups, Congress and governmental agencies. The interrelationship between these three factions can create a self-sufficient (and sometimes corrupt) sub governmental situation in which American citizens' best interests are ignored in favor of receiving special favors and regulation changes for passing particular legislation.

INSIGHTFUL QUOTES ON RACISM AND POWER OF DIVERSITY

Toni Morrison

There is no such thing as race. None. There is just a human race — scientifically, anthropologically.

Oprah Winfrey

Excellence is the best deterrent to racism or sexism.

Martin Luther King Jr.

Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that.

Bill Clinton

For too long politicians told most of us that what's wrong with America is the rest of us. Them. Them the minorities. Them the liberals. Them, them, them. But there is no them; there's only us. One nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty, and justice, for all.
