

Nominate a colleague for the Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award by Friday, December 8.

Eligibility: Any individual whose primary responsibility is teaching and who spends a portion of their time providing academic advising to students. Nominations must:

- Describe the nominee's strong and demonstrated knowledge of institutional academic policies and procedures when advising students.
- Describe how the nominee's advising technique(s) and approach(es) embodies the mission and vision of MSU Denver.
- Include examples of outreach or participation in academic-advising initiatives outside of an advising appointment. Examples include but are not limited to appointment campaigns, email outreach, phone-call outreach, workshops or department advising events, registration events, etc. Please note any use of advising technology in these efforts.
- Describe the nominee's practices and evidence of success in student retention with advisees or students in class. Please include the use of technology (e.g., SSC Navigate, Degree Works, or other systems) to document and/or track successes.

Nominations should be submitted electronically to the Office of Faculty Affairs (ofa@msudenver.edu) by Friday, December 8. Nominations, not to exceed 2 pages in length, should specifically address the ways in which the nominee has achieved excellence in one or more of the four areas identified above. The recipient will be celebrated at the "Roadrunners Who Soar" event during the spring semester.
