Hmmmm... What to do in Colorado?

Colorado offers a variety of different indoor and outdoor activities, especially during the summer months. From camping and hunting, to mountain biking, paddling, climbing and skiing, there is something for everyone. In fact, recent statistics show that 92% of Colorado residents participate in outdoor recreation each year. The Red Rocks Amphitheatre, apart from being naturally formed, is one of the most unique and iconic live music venues in the country, with an open air, rock built stage that hosts America's finest artist every year. Also, Colorado is home to the largest natural hot spring pool in the world, located in Glenwood Springs just about 2 hours out of Denver. What's on your Colorado "to do" list?

Global Ambassadors favorite things to do in Colorado:

Alejandro: I enjoy going out around the city on the weekends and attending Denver's sports teams the most! Denver is home to the Broncos, the Nuggets and the Avalanche among others and always has a young and lively atmosphere.

Brizan: One of my favorite things to do in Colorado is to go sightseeing and hiking. The best trail that I have hiked on so far is the Breckenridge "Troll Trail" also known as Isak Heartstone. There is a giant 15-foot wooden troll at the beginning of the trail and it is so beautifully detailed!
