

Ascent

Advancement of Scholars in Cancer Education aNd Training

University of Colorado-
Anschutz Medical Campus

ASCENT is a two-year mentored cancer research training and professional and career development experience designed to prepare post-baccalaureate students to enroll and succeed in top-tier cancer-related PhD or MD-PhD programs.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Two-year mentored laboratory research experience to strengthen research and technical skills

PROFESSIONAL AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

High-quality professional and career development activities individually designed to complement each scholar's needs and goals

COMMUNITY BUILDING

Experiences to enhance the scholar's network and integration in the social, research, and academic environments

OTHER BENEFITS

- $40,500 Salary/Benefits
- Housing and Moving Allowance
- Graduate School Application Assistance,
- MCAT/GRE Prep Assistance
- Travel to Attend/Present at Scientific Conferences,
- Tuition Remission and Tutoring

For more information go to <https://bit.ly/ASCENT> or contact us at ASCENT@cuanschutz.edu

Diversity in Cancer Research (DICR)

Cancer Center

NCI-DESIGNATED COMPREHENSIVE
CANCER CENTER