HOMELESSNESS: UN-HOUSING AND THE PRODUCTION OF A CRISIS

CRN: HON 391
M/W 2:00-3:15pm

Students learn critical frameworks and approaches to understanding (un)housing and apply these frameworks to a multitude of ongoing institutional and state failures to 'solving' homelessness. The course requires students to critically engage grassroots, reflexive and locally-responsive approaches to homelessness and the institutions that sustain un-housing.
