

BS in Management

Manage Your Own Success

The Department of Management delivers all the academic content you expect from a bachelor's degree program while also bringing to the table everything that's unique about MSU Denver's people and the city's business community.

With a rigorous core, plus four optional concentrations and a wide range of electives, you'll be on your own road to success.

Did You Know?

Experts have identified management specialties—such as supply chain management, human resource management, and other managerial positions—as some of the most future-proof occupations. Our management program gives you the map for these roads to success.

Successful management requires a broad mix of skills, so a career in management will keep you on your toes, keep your interest, and keep you in demand.

Why Major in Management?

A Bachelor of Science degree in Management from Metropolitan State University of Denver (MSU Denver) provides students with the knowledge and skills necessary to manage and lead successfully within the context of globalization and with an appreciation for diversity and inclusion.

As a management major, you will gain knowledge and skills necessary for effective leadership as well as the social and ethical intricacies of management. You will also learn to manage the total enterprise while honing interpersonal, critical thinking, analytical, conceptual, and communication skills. This degree prepares you for the challenges facing large and small institutions and gives you the tools to meet these challenges.

What Can I Do with This Degree?

Here are just some of the management roles you could fill in all types of companies and other institutions such as nonprofits or government:

- Human Resources Manager
- Logistics & Supply Chain Manager
- Sales Support Manager
- Management Consultant
- Production Manager
- Office Manager
- Business Manager
- Operations Manager
- Project Manager
- Development Director
- Risk Manager
- Entrepreneur
- Sales Manager
- Purchasing Manager
- Management Analyst

What is the MSU Denver Management Program Like?

Concentrations

Management majors can chart a custom course by picking among a wide selection of major electives—or choose among four optional concentrations:

- Entrepreneurship
- Legal Environment of Business
- Operations and Supply Chain Management
- Human Resource Management

The Management degree with the Human Resource Management concentration is certified as meeting Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) HR Curriculum Guidelines. This allows eligible students to apply for the SHRM certification exam.

Small Classes Taught by Dedicated Faculty

Our small class sizes (with an average of just 25 students) enable you to actively interact with your professors and your peers. Our faculty are student and teaching focused, experienced, and nationally recognized.

Every MSU Denver BS degree in Business also features a rigorous core of business classes, so that you'll learn foundational skills in business writing, communication, management, marketing, analysis, accounting, and more.

Abundant Internship and Placement Opportunities

The Applied Learning Center is always available to assist you in finding an internship.

Internships enhance your education through work experiences related to your academic major or minor. The Applied Learning Center provides resources to help you find and select an internship that advances your career goals. Once you have an internship, they can also help you get the most out of it and also help you get academic credit.

Accredited by AACSB International

The MSU Denver College of Business has been accredited by AACSB, which is the preeminent worldwide standard-setter for quality in business education. Globally, only 5% of business schools are accredited. Accredited schools must uphold the highest standards and commit to continuous improvement. It serves as the marker of a world-class business education—not only for students, but also for employers who demand the best from graduates.
