

General Studies Courses: Fall 2025 - Summer 2026

Students should consult with an academic or faculty advisor when selecting courses to meet General Studies requirements. The MSU Denver General Studies website offers information on Student Learning Outcomes and an explanation of what makes a course "General Studies": <https://www.msudenver.edu/general-studies/>. Course descriptions and prerequisites can be found in the catalog: www.msudenver.edu/catalog/.

The courses in BOLD below have no prerequisites and the number in the column to the right of each course indicates the number of credits. Transfer students could consult the GT Pathways program for possible equivalents: <https://cdhe.colorado.gov/guaranteed-transfer-pathways-general-education-curriculum>

General Studies Category	Credits required
Written Communication	6
Oral Communication	3
Quantitative Literacy	3
Historical	3
Natural and Physical Sciences	6
Arts and Humanities	6
Social and Behavioral Sciences	6
Global Diversity	0 or 3*
TOTAL	33 minimum

Global Diversity (GD): Students may fulfill the Global Diversity requirement by taking an approved course within one of the following categories: Arts and Humanities; Historical; Natural and Physical Sciences; or Social and Behavioral Sciences. These courses are blue below.

Ethnic Studies & Social Justice (ESSJ): Though not a General Studies category, the ESSJ graduation requirement of 3 credits can be met with some General Studies courses. The General Studies courses that carry this additional ESSJ designation are labeled accordingly and listed in red below. A separate list of all the ESSJ courses is available in the catalog. Students on older catalogs who need to fulfill their Multicultural requirement may use ESSJ courses to do so.

Written Communication

Students need 6 credits in this category. A few rules to consider:

- Students must complete a placement to assess their writing skills. Placement may be in ENG 1008 and ENG 1009, ENG 1010 with ENG 1001, or ENG 1010.
- Students shall satisfy the Written Communication course requirement and credit will be granted if they:
 - pass 6 hours of approved Written Communication courses with a combination of a CO1 and CO2 or a CO2 and a CO3,
 - pass a CLEP or AP test approved by a department offering an approved Written Communication course and the remaining Written Communication course, or
 - transfer equivalent courses.
- To receive credit for Written Communication, the student must receive a grade of "C-" or better in each course.

Written Communication CO-1
ENG 1009 Stretch Composing Arguments B	or	ENG 1010 Composing Arguments	3
Written Communication CO-2
ENG 1020 Research and Argument Writing	or	ENG 1021 Honors Research and Argument Writing	3
Written Communication CO-3
ARTH 2600 Reading and Writing Visual Culture	3	ENG 3526 Writing in the Sciences	3
ENG 2025 Reading and Writing Popular Culture	3	ENG 3527 Professional Writing	3
ENG 3525 Scholarly Writing	3	HIS 3000 Historical Writing and Thinking	3

Oral Communication

Students need a minimum of 3 credits in this category. This requirement must be completed in the first 30 credits of a degree program. Note that the GT Pathways program does NOT have an Oral Communication requirement.

Quantitative Literacy

Students need a minimum of 3 credits in this category. A few rules to consider:

1. Students must complete a placement test to determine their quantitative abilities. Those students whose scores fall below the minimum benchmark must complete developmental coursework in mathematics before enrolling in any Quantitative Literacy course.
2. Students satisfy the Quantitative Literacy course requirement and credit will be granted if they:
 - a. pass a course that has been approved for General Studies Quantitative Literacy credit,
 - b. pass a CLEP, AP, or IB test approved by a department offering an approved Quantitative Literacy course,
 - c. successfully complete a math course for which a Quantitative Literacy course is a prerequisite, or
 - d. transfer an equivalent course.
3. This requirement must be met in the first 30 credits of the degree program.

Global Diversity

Students need a minimum of 3 credits in this category, but this is a “double dip” category. Thus students are encouraged to select a Global Diversity course already designated as Arts and Humanities, Historical, Natural and Physical Sciences, or Social and Behavioral Sciences categories. These courses are printed blue above. This parenthesis below refers to the additional General Studies category. For example, (AH) refers to Arts and Humanities. The GT Pathways program does NOT have a Global Diversity requirement. So GT Pathways transfer students should choose from this list to meet this General Studies requirement unless they already completed a Degree with Designation.
