

SPEECH, LANGUAGE, HEARING SCIENCES: SPEECH- LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY ASSISTANT CERTIFICATE

This certificate allows students with a prior bachelor's degree to gain the competencies required by the Colorado Department of Education to be authorized as a speech-language pathology assistant (SLP-A). During the final semester of the program, students complete SLHS 4350 (Speech-Language Pathology Assistant Methods). SLHS 4350¹ is composed of a 3-credit online seminar & 4-credit public-school SLP-A internship; students intern for 180 hours under the direction of an ASHA-certified SLP.

ADDITIONAL CONSIDERATIONS:

- Degree-seeking SLHS majors are required to take non-SLHS prerequisites. These suggested prereqs may be waived for certificate students, however, students without this background knowledge will need to enroll in a formal course and/or engage in independent review of the material to be successful.
- Before beginning the 4350 internship, students must provide documentation that they have completed 25 observation hours with ASHA-certified SLPs.

NEXT STEPS:

- Meet with an SLHS advisor. Request an appointment with an SLHS advisor by visiting: <https://www.msudenver.edu/speech-language-hearing-sciences/#advising>. Have an unofficial transcript with date of bachelor's degree conferred available at this appointment.
- Enroll at MSU Denver. Students must be enrolled to complete this certificate. Official transcripts will be required. Refer to the university website for current enrollment information (<https://msudenver.edu/admissions>).
- Register for courses and/or submit hold-lift request. For classes that have a prerequisite (SLHS or otherwise) not completed at MSU Denver, students will need registration assistance. Students must complete the SLHS Hold-Lift Request form. Please contact the department (slhs@msudenver.edu) with any questions.
