Veterans Day - 11th

A day dedicated to honoring those who have served in the U.S. Armed Forces, living and deceased, for their bravery, courage, and willingness to serve the country. We express gratitude and acknowledge the dedication of all veterans for all their sacrifices along with the dangerous experiences they may have gone through.

History of Thanksgiving

While some celebrate Thanksgiving as a time for reflection and gratitude, others mark it as a Day of Mourning. This holiday has roots in the traditions of Indigenous peoples of North America, who experienced genocide and forced removal from their lands. So, as we gather in gratitude, we also honor and give thanks to all Tribal Nations and the ancestors of Colorado.

Fall Break - Time to Rest Before the End of this Semester

November is when fall slowly starts to turn into winter. It's also the perfect time for Fall Break! At MSU Denver, classes are on break from the 24th to the 26th, with Thanksgiving following on the 27th and 28th.

Not sure what to do during the break? Take time to rest and recharge—get cozy as the days grow colder! Pull on your favorite sweater and go for a stroll. The trees have turned into beautiful warm shades of yellow, orange, and red.

On the day of Thanksgiving, you can help prepare a delicious meal for yourself, your family, or your friends! Many people roast turkey, bake pumpkin or apple pie, make mashed potatoes, gravy, and much more. Of course, you can cook whatever you like—the main focus of Thanksgiving is to give thanks, spend time with loved ones, and appreciate all that you have.
