

August Blog Post – Welcome!... or Welcome Back!

Welcome to all the new and current International Roadrunners! Classes are just around the corner, but you should still take some time for yourself! Don't have any ideas? Here are a few recommendations with some of which are for the new Fall Semester students:

- Do a little tech check, make sure your materials are working well
- Review your schedule for your classes. Map out where your classes are!
- Prepare your supplies
- Make a routine plan
- Have a new roommate? Get to know them!
- Look through clubs on MSU Denver's RoadrunnerLink website!
- Take note of your tuition, or check if your financial aid has been disbursed!
- Go on walks to clear your mind
- And of course, take good rest!

If you are not a new Roadrunner or just looking for fun things to do when you're free, I recommend looking at visitdenver.com for fun events to experience! I usually pick events from there and mention them here so International Roadrunners can experience the whimsy of Colorado!

To finish off this blog post, make sure to look back at the newsletter to see what fun events we have in store for you! Connecting with the community is a perfect way to settle into MSU Denver. As you head into this semester, remember to celebrate your progress, no matter how small.

Take pride in what you've accomplished, stay hopeful for what's ahead, and trust that you're building a future you can be proud of. That's all for now! Make sure to check the forecast every day and dress accordingly! <3
